

Excerpt from Minutes of the March 2004 Board of Regents Meeting detailing amendments to the original proposal.

Title 4, Chapter 3 Professional Staff

Approved-Handbook Revision, 2004 Summer Term Salary Schedules, UNLV, UNR, & NSC –
The Board approved 2004 Summer Term salary schedules for UNLV, UNR, and NSC.

A. UNLV

The Board approved President Carol Harter's request for increased salary schedules for summer session faculty at UNLV (Ref. W on file in the Board office).

The following schedules are effective for the [2003] 2004 Summer Term:

1. UNLV Faculty

Professor $[1,900] $2,100 per credit hour

- Teaching Assistant/
Graduate Assistant $1,005
- 2. Visiting Faculty
 - Professor $1,435 per credit hour
 - Associate Prof. $1,270
 - Assistant Prof. [$980] $1,100 requested new rate
 - Instructor $980-1,43

The per-credit hour salary is the maximum allowable. A lower amount is permitted when agreed to by the instructor.

C. NSC

The Board approved President Kerry Romesburg's requests for the addition of the following language in the Board of Regents Handbook (Title IV, Chapter 3, Section 27.3).

3. Nevada State College, Henderson

Nevada State College has a temporary summer term salary schedule in place until a permanent policy is approved. Tenure track B-contract faculty and adjunct instructors teaching in the 2004 Summer Term will be paid $725 per credit hour.

Regent Rosenberg requested an explanation for the differences between UNR and UNLV. Chancellor Nichols replied that UNLV's summer school has a broader base of students and holds larger classes than UNR. She related that UNR would like to pay what UNLV was recommending, but they cannot afford it.

Dr. John Readence, Faculty Senate Chair-UNLV, reported that UNLV has approximately 14,000 students during the summer. Many are non-traditional students taking fewer courses during the academic year, but attending all three summer sessions. The entire program is offered year round, which necessitates the need to recruit faculty.

Dr. Trudy Larson, Faculty Senate Chair-UNR, reported that the size of the classes at UNR are smaller and fewer classes are offered than at UNLV
