

BOARD OF REGENTS
BRIEFING PAPER
Handbook Revision: Credit by Examination

BACKGROUND & POLICY CONTEXT OF ISSUE:

As reported previously to the Board, NSHE is engaged in a System-wide project, Non-traditional No More: Policy Solutions for Adult Learners. This two-year grant-funded project is led by the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education and funded by the Lumina Foundation. Over the past year institutional leaders have been focusing on strategies to increase college degree attainment for Nevada's adult learners. During the course of the project NSHE policies and procedures have been examined to determine if revision is required in order to better meet the needs of adult learners and facilitate their progress towards a degree. One such policy reviewed by the project participants is on University Credit by Examination (Title 4, Chapter 14, Section 19 and Title 4, Chapter 16, Section 12). The current policy defines credit by examination for universities only. The proposed policy revision broadens the scope to include all institutions, adds additional examination categories to bring policy in alignment with current practice, and deletes
